		The discussion with the parents representative commenced with a prayer movement and a warm welcome extended to the representative. Sr. Shiny reiterated the necessity for a fee structure adjustment due to the lack of government grants for some teachers, requiring additional support from parents. The parents representative expressed their understanding of the situation and suggested exploring alternative fundraising methods to alleviate the financial burden on parents. Additionally, the introduction of computer subjects was deliberated upon, with the representative emphasizing the importance of integrating technology into the curriculum to enhance students skills for the future. Following a thorough discussion with the parents representative and considering their valuable input and suggestions, the final decisions were made. The fee adjustment proposal was revised
