		nursey children, which would be included in the annual fees of Rs. 30,600. She emphasized the need for full cooperation from the parents and announced a 20% rise in the fee structure for the next academic year. Stating that was necessary due to the rising costs. Sr. Rosy also highlighted that the salaries of primary teachers should be increased, as they deserve more. Therefore, there will be a 20% fee increase this year and then a 15% increase every alternate year for the primary section. The ECA and monthly fees will be separate, and the development fees will include costs for technology-based learning, CCTV for safety, a science lab, and a computer lab.
